RightNow Media Launches Essentials of Faith:

A TRANSFORMATIONAL 12-SERIES DISCIPLESHIP JOURNEY FOR THE CHURCH

New video series equip churches and small groups to explore foundational truths of the Christian faith through trusted Bible teaching and meaningful discussion questions.

McKinney, TX— RightNow Media, the world's largest streaming library of biblical video content, recently launched Essentials of Faith, a new discipleship resource designed to help believers understand and apply foundational truths of the Christian faith. The first four of twelve video series are now available to RightNow Media's worldwide network of more than 32,000 subscribing churches, ministries, and Christian-owned businesses.

With increasing requests from pastors for simple, accessible tools to disciple new and growing believers, RightNow Media developed Essentials of Faith as a resource to ground individuals and groups in the core doctrines of Christianity.

"Churches have been asking us for resources that provide a step-by-step pathway to spiritual maturity," said Brian Mosley, President of RightNow Media. "Essentials of Faith builds a solid theological foundation for new believers and invites seasoned Christians to deepen their understanding of the gospel. We designed these series to partner with churches and support their existing discipleship strategies to develop mature followers of Jesus."

Built for small groups, individual study, or church-wide campaigns, Essentials of Faith addresses twelve key questions about the Christian faith in a progressive, easy-to-follow format. Each session helps viewers grow in confidence and clarity as they explore the implications of the gospel in their lives and prepares them to disciple others.

Key Features of Essentials of Faith:

Each series answers a core question about Christianity (Ex: What is a Christian? or Why Does Jesus Matter?)

Sessions are 10–15 minutes long and include free downloadable discussion guides for deeper reflection and group dialogue.

Featured teachers include Francis Chan, J.D. Greear, Lisa Harper, and Derwin Gray, with upcoming series from Beth Moore, Eric Mason, Sharon Hodde Miller, Kyle Idleman, and more.

The Essentials of Faith video series and study guides are included with a RightNow Media subscription. For more information about Essentials of Faith, visit <https://www.rightnowmedia.org/essentials-of-faith>.
